Lost Bridegroom Heard From.

Developments tend to substantiate the theory of the Cincinnati police that James B. Neal, the Lexington, Ky., salesman, who mysteriously disappeared from the Sinton Hotel Sunday, leaving his bride, is still living. It is thought the missing man was in Winton place Wednesday, and that there is at least one man in that city who knows his present whereabouts.

A man, believed to have been Neal, telephoned to a Vine street man concerning some woman in the Sinton Hotel. The telephonic conversation was heard by a person who accidentally got on the line.

The man in Winton place was crying during the conversation.

"Is she still in the Sinton?" asked the man who is thought to have been Neal.

"No, she has gone home," replied his friend.

"Well, I'm in bad and I'm afraid to face the music," continued he man in Winton place.

The man in Winton place told his friend he intended to leave the city immediately, but did not say where he was going. The conversation was reported to the police.

A new theory advanced in connection with Neal's disappearance is that he may have gotten mixed up with some turfmen who frequent a small hotel in Winton place and that after he learned that his actions had caused such a flurry, he was afraid to go back to his wife.

Neal was formerly from Paris. He is the grandson of the late Blackwell Neal, who lived in East Paris, years ago in the property recently sold by Judge H. Clay McKee, of M. t. r. ing for the Neal heirs. The missing young man is the son of Wm. Neal, who is remembered by many here and who became a preacher after moving from Paris. His mother was a Miss Harding, of Winchester.

Years ago young Neal had an uncle John Neal, who lived near North Middletown, to suddenly disappear the day before he was to be married. He was not heard of until four months after, when he suddenly returned home. He then married and several years afterwards was found dead in his barn.

$20,000 Fire at Stamping Ground

A fire believed to have been of incendiary origin almost wiped out the village of Stamping Ground, Scott county, nine miles west of Georgetown, at an early hour yesterday morning, destroying the only hotel in the place, damaging the postoffice and burning the leading business block, together with three residences and entailing a loss of between $15,000 and $20,000, about half of which loss is covered by insurance.

Negro Fugitive Arrested.

On Tuesday night Officer James Burke arrested and placed in jail Clayton Wills, colored, who is wanted in one of our neighboring towns for an offense committed some time ago. At the time of his arrest Wills denied that he was the man the officer was seeking and gave his name as George Williams. Later, however, he admitted to the officer that his right name was Wills, but strongly protested his innocence in connection with the offense with which he is charged. He will be held until the authorities of several cities can be heard from.

Lost.

On Mt. Airy Avenue, Thursday, a sunburst clasp pin set with one diamond and thirty pearls. Finder return to News office and receive reward.

Remember the Date.

On Thursday, July 23rd, is the day the Paris Commercial Club has its first annual outing. It will be a mammoth picnic free to everybody. Commercial Clubs of our neighboring cities are invited to attend in a body and all of the country people are going to take a holiday on that date and attend. Two or three good bands of music will be present and a big parade will take place before going to the grounds. It will be a gala day for old Paris.

Another Good One at the Grand.

Manager Jackson, of the Paris Grand is still furnishing the patrons of his theatre with the best that is to be had in this line of the theatrical business, as evidenced by the program that was presented last night, and which will continue the remainder of this week.

Billie Morris, black-faced comedian, is an artist, and captivated the audience with his pleasing monologue, songs and dances. He is a clever comedian and something out of the ordinary in this line of vaudeville.

Miss Nellie Lovely continue to please in the illustrated songs and has become a decided favorite among those who frequent the theatre, and is a shining light on the program.

In a mirthful musical satire Rogers and Evans showed themselves to be artists of ability; a team worthy of all the good things that can be said of them, and to say that they made a hit on their first appearance would be putting it light.

Tonight is amateur night, and the management has arranged to introduce something new along the amateur line. This will be a genuine negro cake walk, something that hasn't been seen in this city for a number of years. Several negro cake-walkers have been selected to take part, and the competition for the big cake and the cash prize that are being offered, promises to be of a warm nature.

Excellent Showing of Paris and County Banks.

The semi-annual statements of the six Paris banks and the four banks in Bourbon county, outside of Paris, make an excellent showing, demonstrating that the money market at least in old Bourbon is not tight.

The Deposit Bank, of North Middletown has deposits of $108,992.03, surplus $12,000, and declares a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

Lexington Banks Consolidate.

The First National and Third National Banks, of Lexington, have consolidated. The Fourth of July.

[From Bryan's Commoner.]

A correspondent has asked, first, what can be done to promote a movement for a more sane celebration of the Fourth of July and to correct a somewhat perverted patriotic sentiment. Second, what can be done to prepare the children and youth for the high duties of Christian citizenship. As the day approaches for the annual celebration of the Fourth of July it is well that preparations should be made for celebrations in harmony with the national sentiment that led our forefathers to set apart this day as a public holiday. Our failure to celebrate this day is not a good sign and even worse it is celebrator, the fact that the celebration turns to amusements rather than to the serious contemplation of the subjects suggested by the day, this fact is likewise significant of a lack of respect for the day.

The Fourth of July is a national holiday because on that day the nation's independence was declared and it is considered as the birthday of the republic. Patriotism would suggest an appropriate celebration in every community—a celebration at which the people would gather to bestow merited praise upon our forefathers; to discuss the fundamental principles of methods of government; to review the achievements of the past; to consider the dangers that menace the future; and to lay plans of perpetuity of a government of the people, by the people and for the people. Amusements can be introduced in the program but the amusements ought to be incidental and not the main feature of the day. Is it not possible for the people to lay aside for at least one day out of the year their interest in material prosperity and consider the questions vitally concerning our national life and our national destiny?

When the parents commemorate the Fourth of July as they should, it will be easy to prepare the children for the duties of citizenship. We are all imitators to a greater or less extent and the children are quite sure to be impressed by the actions and conversations of their elders. The best way to prepare our children for the discharge of the high duties of citizenship is to be scrupulously careful ourselves about the discharge of the duties of citizenship. If parents are indifferent to the observance of the Fourth of July, their children are apt to be. If the parents prefer amusement on that day, the children are apt to prefer amusements, too. It is not necessary that there should be an elaborate address by a distinguished speaker, although an impressive address by one who enjoys the confidence of the people is entirely fitting. The Declaration of Independence should be read, national airs ought to be sung and those who are leaders of thought in their community ought to give expression to their views. It ought to be a day for the free exchange of sentiment and for the stimulation of thought about public questions and interest in public affairs.

The indifference with which some now speak of the vital principles set forth in the Declaration of Independence ought to lead to more zeal on the part of those who defend the Declaration of Independence. Colonialism would not have been accepted so complacently by so many had there been the interest there ought to have been in the constant discussion of the principles of free government. Imperialism would not have found the reception that it did had the Fourth of July been observed as it ought to have been observed and the advocates of imperialism and colonialism will grow less in proportion as the people take an active interest in the perpetuation of the ideals of government that led the patriots of 1776 to promulgate the Declaration of Independence and pledge to its support their lives, their property and their sacred honor.

"My Dear Sherman."

Whether elected to the Vice-Presidency or not, the Hon. James Schoolcraft Sherman, of Utica, already shines in history, says the New York World.

It was Mr. Sherman, who, as Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, in the fall of 1906, invited that pure-minded plutocratic patriot

Edward H. Harriman to contribute some of the unearned increment toward the election of a Republican House of Representatives.

It was Mr. Sherman who carried the news of Mr. Harriman's emphatic refusal to the White House, together with some account of Mr. Harriman's heated conversation in reference to a certain contribution of $250,000 to the Republican campaign fund in 1904 after a confidential conference with the President of the United States.

It was to "My Dear Sherman" that Mr. Roosevelt wrote the "shorter-and-uglier-word" letter of Oct. 8, 1906, which reviewed the Harriman conversation in which "he expressed great dissatisfaction with me, and said in effect that so long as I was at the head of the Republican party or it was disseminated by the policies which I advocate and represent he would not support it, and was quite indifferent whether Hearst beat Hughes or whether the Democrats carried Congress or not."

It was to Mr. Sherman that Mr. Harriman had confided his views of constitutional government which Mr. Roosevelt summarized in the following language: "You inform me that he told you that he did not care in the least, because those people (Hearst's) were crooks and that he could buy them; that whenever he wanted legislation he could buy it; that he 'could buy Congress,' and that if necessary 'he could buy the judiciary.'"

As a participant in one of the most illuminating incidents of modern political history Mr. Sherman really did not need a nomination for Vice-President to add luster to his name.

Just why the convention named Mr. Sherman is difficult to understand. Partly, we assume, because the Iowa delegates could not agree as between Dolliver and Cummins, and Sherman's nomination was highly satisfactory to Speaker Cannon and the so-called Congressional crowd. Chiefly because the Administration was anxious to do something for a feeble and futile Republican organization in New York; Hughes declined the nomination, and Sherman was less objectionable than Cortelyou or Woodruff. Incidentally because Mr. Roosevelt could not think of anybody stronger than Sherman who would take the nomination and not tax beyond safe limits the patience of an unprecedented patient convention.

Anyway, Mr. Sherman is the candidate. He is officially endorsed as a Man of My Type, and that seems to be what the Republican party wants.

Chinese Rice Paper.

The rice paper upon which the Chinese do such charming drawing is a thin sheet of the pith of a tree.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broad-ast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the closest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicine. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Clay-Hancock Wedding.

"Marchmont," the magnificent country residence of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Clay, on the Winchester pike, was the scene Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, of one of the most beautiful home weddings ever celebrated in Bourbon, when the daughter of the house, Miss Nancy Clay, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Boyd Hancock, of near Charlottesville, Va.

The home was profusely decorated with Easter lilies and lilies of the valley, while pink roses, smilax, and plumosa garlanded the stairway, door arches and mantels. The ceremony was solemnized in the spacious dining room, the bridal party forming a semi-circle beneath three beautiful floral arches that formed a canopy in the bay window. An arch composed of smilax, plumosa, dotted with lilies of the valley graced the entrance to the stairway from which the bridal party descended. In the rear of the stairway and screened by an embankment of flowers, the string quartet, consisting of harp, flute, violin and cello, were stationed.

At the appointed hour the bridal party, to the sweet strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, appeared, the little ribbons girls, Misses Marion and Elizabeth Clay Alexander, cousins of the bride, leading the way. Elder Carey E. Morzan, the officiating minister, preceded the bridal party, followed by the bridegroom, Mr. Arthur Boyd Hancock, on the arm of his best man, his brother, Mr. Richard Hancock. Then came the Matron of Honor, the bride's sister, Mrs. J. Miller Ward, followed by the Maid of Honor, the bride's cousin, Miss Kate Alexander. Next appeared the handsome bride on the arm of her father, Mr. James E. Clay, who gave her in marriage. After the ceremony was pronounced and the popular couple received congratulations, the bridal party repaired to the front veranda, where they were photographed by Knight, of Lexington.

The bride was attractively attired in a magnificent wedding gown of point applique lace over white satin, the tulle veil being caught with orange blossoms and pinned with a diamond pendant.

She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her going away gown was of green cloth with hat to match. The little ribbon girls, the Misses Alexander, were lovely in white dress trimmed in lace. As they led the way for the bridal party, they unfolded from either hand white silk ribbons, the ends of which were attached to huge bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The Matron of Honor, Mrs. J. Miller Ward, was lovely in a gown of white lace, over silk, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The Maid of Honor, Miss Kate Alexander, was strikingly handsome in white chiffon, over green, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

After the ceremony the dining room and library were cleared and a wedding supper was served by Solger, of Louisville. In the spacious dining room was the bridal table, plates for twelve being laid. The plate cards were little white slippers, hand painted, containing the names of the guests.

A magnificent wedding cake, beaded in white and green, formed the centerpiece. The bridal party were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boyd Hancock, Mr. Richard Hancock, Miss Kate Alexander, Mrs. J. Miller Ward, Mr. Sam Clay, Mr. R. H. P. Adams, Lynchburg, Va., Miss Mary Clay, Dr. Harris Hancock, Cincinnati, Mr. Buckner Clay, Mrs. Edith Alexander Bronston, and Miss Jane Hancock, of Charlottesville, Va.

After the wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Hancock left in an automobile for Lexington where they took the 8:40 p. m. train over the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad for Hot Springs, Va., where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will take up their residence at Ellerslie, the splendid colonial estate of the Hancocks.

The wedding presents were unusually rich and handsome and numbered several hundred. The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a handsome amethyst stone.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Clay, and is popular in society circles of Central Kentucky.

She is possessed of a sweet and cheerful disposition, and was the sunshine of a happy home.

The bridegroom is a typical Southern gentleman and comes from one of the old colonial families of Virginia. He is the son of Captain R. J. Hancock, an officer in the Confederate army. Mr. Hancock, with his father, conducts one of the leading thoroughbred race horse establishments of his native State.

Among the guests from a distance who attended the wedding were: Dr. Harris Hancock, Charlottesville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Walsh, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus C. Hone, Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hilton, and Mr. Clough Anderson, Cincinnati; Mr. Brent Arnold, Covington; Mrs. Frederick Gedeeke, Havana, Cuba; Mrs. Chas. Wornall, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Alice Gidhwaite, Marion, Ind.; Major and Mrs. F. A. Daingerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Berryman, Judge and Mrs. Gray Faulconer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Loughridge, Mr. John Payne, Misses Mary and Margaret Payne, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stoll, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas, Winchester; Mrs. R. P. Pepper, Frankfort; Mr. William A. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ernst, Covington, and Mr. and Mrs. Glover, Louisville.

It Reached the Spot.

Mr. E. Humphrey, who owns a large general store at Omega, O., and is president of the Adams County Telephone Co., as well as of the Home Telephone Co., of Pike county, O., says of Dr. King's New Discovery: "It saved my life once. At least I think it did. It seemed to reach the spot—the very seat of my cough—when everything else failed." Dr. King's New Discovery not only reaches the cough spot; it heals the sore spots and the weak spots in throat, lungs and chest. Sold under guarantee at Oberdofer's drug store. 50 cents and $1.00. Badly Needed Ordinance.

An ordinance should be passed at once to prohibit the speeding of automobiles in the city limits before someone is run over and killed. Blackberries High.

Blackberries have made their appearance on the local market and are selling at seventy-five cent per bucket, the highest price that has been demanded for this choice preserving fruit in years. IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles—A Paris Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Paris people testify to permanent cures.

J. H. Furman, living at 109 N. High Street, Paris, Ky., says: "My kidneys are just as strong and active today as they could be and I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills. Nearly five years have passed since they cured and there has never been a return to the old complaint. I gave a statement recommending this remedy some years ago and am willing to confirm same now. I was in bad shape when I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. A. Wilson's drug store. My back was weak and painful and I had considerable trouble with my kidneys. After a short use of Doan's Kidney Pills all my troubles were banished."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other

Kentucky Has Best.

A gentleman who has recently traveled over a great deal of country, including Kansas and Kentucky, says that the finest fields of wheat he has yet encountered were in Wayne county this State. He made the assertion that the most of them would average thirty bushels to the acre.

Unveiling Ceremonies.

The unveiling ceremonies of the monument erected to the memory of Lorenzo Dow Kindred by the Woodmen of the World, were held Sunday afternoon in the Winchester cemetery. The Order was formed at the court house in Winchester headed by the Winchester band and marched to the cemetery followed by a large number of friends, in buggies. The program was carried out at the cemetery. Rev. C. E. Crafton, who is a member of the Order, delivered a most eloquent address, and Miss Guldie Perry's rendition of a poem was highly complimentary to the eulogatory gifts of this young lady.

The Glorious Fourth.

All over the country, cities, towns and families are preparing for the Fourth of July celebration on Saturday. The work is both offensive and defensive. It is offensive in that it is disagreeable, noisy, bad smelling and dangerous. It is defensive in that prudent physicians and undertakers are preparing poultices and plasters, lint and surgical instruments, hospitals and coffins for the slain, and the wounded of that dreadful day. In the matter of foolish and foolhardy celebration, the United States on the Fourth of July takes the cake.

McClelland Finally Wins.

Justice Lambert, of the Supreme Court of New York, ordered the jury to render a verdict declaring that George B. McClelland was duly elected Mayor of New York City in 1905. W. R. Hearst made a bitter contest to oust McClelland. McClelland's plurality was 2,965 after a recount of the ballots.

Gray the Right Man.

Though candidates for second place on the Democratic ticket are turning up on every side, it is believed that if he will consent to accept it, Judge George Gray, of Delaware, can be named with little opposition. Judge Gray's manager, however, insists that his man is in the race for first place to stay and will not think of the vice presidency until after the President is nominated.

Gets Old Claim.

Comptroller of the Treasury Tracewell at Washington has decided that $195.02 is due Mrs. Cook, of Millersburg, formerly of this city, where Capt. Cook was in business on claims made on account of her deceased husband, David L. Cook, late of the Sixth Kentucky Cavalry. The Auditor reported that nothing was due Mrs. Cook, but on her appeal to the Comptroller it was found that she was entitled to pay and allowances which were properly due her husband, but were not given him.

Origin of the Baldwin Apple.

The Baldwin apple comes rightfully by its name, for it first grew as a chance seedling on the farm of John Ball in Eastern Massachusetts and was later brought into general notice by Colonel Baldwin. These facts are stated on a handsome monument which was a few years ago erected on the spot where this first seedling grew. Of course all the millions of Baldwins which have been grown since the birth of this first tree in about 1740 are descendant from it. The famous Newtown Pippin was also a chance seedling coming into notice about 200 years ago. Other chance seedlings have also proved of great value, but some of the most notable apples have come from planted seedlings, some growers planting as extensively as a bushel of seeds a season.

The World's Best Climate.

Is not entirely free from disease, on the high elevations fever prevails, while on the lower level malaria is encountered to a greater or less extent, according to the altitude. To overcome climate affections lassitude, malaria, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague and general debility, the most effective remedy is Electric Bitters, the great alterative and blood purifier; the antidote for every form of bodily weakness, nervousness, and insomnia. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. Price 50 cents. July

They Were Skinned.

The reported big sale of pooled tobacco at Winchester has been confirmed—7,000 hogsheads at 16 cents per pound—one million one hundred and twenty-one thousand dollars worth. And what is better than all the report is that the 1907 crop will be sold at an average of twenty cents. Those fellows that slipped their crops out at night and were skinned on the Lexington loose market can now proceed to kick themselves and cuss Equity, says the Carlisle Mercury.

Over the Burning Sands.

There is going to be a hotter time in Lexington tomorrow, than anywhere else in the United States. The Shriners will erect a new temple in that city and the pilgrimage to Mecca will gather in one hundred novices. The chief sand-heater already has the temperature up to 103 and by tomorrow it will be necessary to call out the fire department to cool off the pilgrims. There will be a number of Paris Shriners present to enjoy the hot time.

Kentucky's Big Slice of Pie.

Secretary Woodson announces the following appointments of Kentuckians as officers for the Democratic National Convention:

Nat D. Crutcherfield, Louisville, parliamentarian; Clarence M. Finn, Owensboro, assistant secretary; Ruby Lafoon, Madisonville, tally clerk; James E. Stone, Hardinsburg, assistant secretary; Oscar Vest, Owensboro, assistant sergeant-at-arms; M. J. Wade, Campbellsville, special officer; Allen Smith, Louisville, special officer; Dr. J. R. Collier, Louisville, medical officer; George R. Wyman, Louisville, assistant sergeant-at-arms; R. H. Fowler, Louisville, assistant sergeant-at-arms; Jesse Alverson, Stanford, doorkeeper; James Edwards, Slaughter, Danville, messenger to the secretary. To some of the above appointees he has wired instructions to come to Denver at once; others will start with the Kentucky delegation.

Figures Don't Lie.

"I have carefully figured it out and find that if all the cattle we ship to market each year were one cow she would browse on the tropical vegetation along the equator, while her tail was switching icicles off the North Pole," says Homer Hoch. "And by the aid of the higher branches of mathematics I have made careful computations which show that if all the hogs we slaughter annually were one hog, that animal could dig the Panama Canal in two roots and a half and its squeal would be so loud it would jar the aurora borealis."

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrer of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907 I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollars." Sold by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. July

Record Breaking Deficiency.

The official statement of the Treasury receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, shows a marked falling off in receipts as compared with 1907 and a large increase in expenditures. The excess of expenditures over receipts for the year will approximate $60,000,000. This has only been exceeded twice since the Civil War. The deficiency in the postal revenues for the present year will probably reach $13,500,000, as against $7,500,000 for 1907. This is the largest postal deficiency in the history of the United States Government except in 1905.

Over Thirty-Five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. July

School Improvement League.

The last meeting for the summer of the Bourbon County School Improvement League was held at the court house on Monday morning. At this meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Kate Edar, Vice President, Mrs. W. G. Talbott; Secretary, Mrs. J. T. Vansant; Treasurer, Mrs. F. P. Lowry; Press Committee, Miss Nell Whaley.
A special meeting of the League will be held in August, the exact date to be announced later through the papers.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four year old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured him and believe that saved his life.—William H. Stroling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with caution according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. July

NEW CENTURY BINDER

This binder has a world-wide reputation. In every grain growing country under the Sun it is said to be the best yet by all who use it or see it work. The features that appeal most to its users are:—lightness of draft; handiness of operation; durability of construction; ability to do perfect work in any kind of grain; accuracy and sure work of knotters; absence of neck weight and side draft. The New Century is the latest type of binder, made by the people who gave the world its first successful binder, and now give it its most successful one—a binder that

WALTER A. WOOD MOWERS

Are Different From All Others

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower in 1882 it was upon a principle entirely different from any other. That same principle today distinguishes our mowers from all others. It is the "floating frame" described so fully in our catalog. All manufacturers of mowers admit that the "direct under-draft" principle is the correct one—but they can't use it because genuine underdraft is possible only with the "floating frame" construction which is exclusive to Walter A. Wood Mowers. We feel justified in asserting that our mowers are: the easiest running; lightest draft; handiest to operate; least expensive to keep in repair and longest lived. The mower that leads on these points is the mower it will pay the farmer to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

Balance in State Treasury.

State Treasurer Edward Farley's books Wednesday, at the end of the fiscal year, show a balance in the State Treasury of $133,379.60, which is over $100,000 less than on hand last year. Captain Farley states that a comparison of the balances for the last four years show a gradually decreasing balance and he wants to know if "this thing keeps up where we will end?" He says that there are about $150,000 due on outstanding warrants, but he believes this can be taken care of and running expenses provided without the necessity of an extra session to provide means.

Hands Taft a Lemon.

Senator Joseph B. Foraker in a speech at Cincinnati praised Taft for his high character, but adds that he had a fatal weakness in that he stands for the Roosevelt policies, of which Mr. Foraker said the country already had too much.

Green Appointed.

Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin appointed Col. Liljan Green, of Covington, immigration agent for the State, under authority of the State Board of Agriculture, Forestry and Immigration. He will receive a salary of $2,000 a year. Col. Green's resignation as assistant adjutant general has been tendered to Governor Wilson, taking effect Wednesday.

Madison Farmer Found Dead.

Slas Robert, aged 65, a well-to-do farmer, of Madison county, was found dead in bed early yesterday morning, having died some time during the night, the cause of his death according to the coroner's verdict, being heart trouble. Mr. Roberts ate a hearty supper and retired, apparently in the best of health, when he failed to appear for breakfast an investigation was made, and his body was found.

Representing Bryan.

Frank S. Monnet, former Attorney General of Ohio, reached Denver yesterday with a commission from Mr. Bryan to address the Committee on Resolutions and present Mr. Bryan's ideas on the anti-injunction plank. The Nebraska will be satisfied with nothing less than a declaration in favor of preventing issuance of injunction before notice to defendants and a full hearing, permitting a trial before a judge other than the one who issued the writ, and trial by jury in cases where legal contempt is committed outside the presence of the court.

Now in Effect.

The Federal pure food law in relation to whisky is now in effect. All Government gaugers must brand all heads of barrels into which mixtures, blends or compounds are drawn with the prescribed words of "blend," "compound" or "imitation." The straight whisky distillers will continue labeling their product "whisky."

GREAT

AND CLEARANCE SALE

AT

HARRY SIMON'S

Wait For It.

Nothing Like this Sale Ever Seen in the Good Old City of Paris . . .

OUR buyers were on the ground with a great syndicate who bought the entire stock of Loom Ends from several of the largest mills of the country. These goods were bought at auction for spot cash. We propose to offer such unheard of buying chances during this sale that will make competition tremble and buyers smile. We have plenty of Loom Ends suited to your ideas. There are plenty of long pieces in nice colors, shades and patterns. You will find just what you want cheaper than you expect. If you imagine Loom Ends are a lot of junk you will be agreeably surprised.

Come Early and Get Choice.

What is Meant by Loom Ends?

Where Do They Come From? We Will Tell You.

Loom Ends are goods that fall short in length of the requirements for export purposes, but identical in quality with the first grades, yet still not to be classed with the regular goods, because they are wanting in length, or a slight imperfection in the weave, careless stitching in the underwear or a thread dropped in hosiery. These are Loom Ends. None of these slight flaws hurt the wear or the looks of the goods to the customer, but they prevent mills or factories from selling them at a profit. The enormous stock of Loom Ends we have purchased for this sale are all new goods, fresh from the looms, and are offered today at Loom cost. You will never know what Loom End Cost is if you fail to attend this sale, for the prices given are but an inkling of the money-saving opportunities offered. You pay two or three times the price for the same goods at other stores.
